

A History of BIDMC

BIDMC enjoys a long legacy of being at the forefront of innovation in research, patient care, and education.

- ▶ BIDMC-related
- ▶ OBGYN-specific

1960 1972 1983 1986 1995 1998 2003 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017

Beth Israel Hospital (BIH) develops first implantable cardiac pacemaker.

BIH implements nation's first Rights of Patients statement.

Deaconess Hospital performs first successful liver transplant in New England.

BIH delivers first baby conceived through in vitro fertilization in Massachusetts.

Deaconess Hospital performs New England's first minimally invasive coronary bypass surgery and implants first deep brain stimulator for treatment of Parkinson's.

BIDMC performs first adult live donor liver transplant in New England.

BIDMC cardiothoracic surgeon William Cohn issues patent for Cohn Cardiac Stabilizer, allowing coronary artery bypass surgery without a heart-lung machine.

BIDMC researchers discover probable cause of preeclampsia and publish results in the New England Journal of Medicine and the Journal of Clinical Investigation.

BIDMC reports the involvement of sFlt-1 in preeclampsia in NEJM.

US News & World Report places BIDMC among nation's Best Hospitals in six clinical specialties.

BIDMC reports a team training method for patient safety in obstetrics in JAMA.

BIDMC's Department of OBGYN is the first recipient of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts Health Care Excellence Award in patient safety programs.

BIDMC's Department of OBGYN receives The Joint Commission award for excellence in patient safety and innovation.

BIDMC reports in Nature that the COMT gene, known for its role in schizophrenia, also plays a role in preeclampsia.

BIDMC is among three hospitals recognized for leadership and innovation in quality, safety, and commitment to patient care as an American Hospital Association–McKesson Quest for Quality Prize® finalist.

BIDMC is awarded $38.2 million from the National Institutes of Health as part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

BIDMC scientists receive 69 NIH grants across all departments.

US News & World Report names BIDMC Top Hospital, plus Honorable Mention for gynecology.

BIDMC is named the nation's top-ranked health care information company and 12th overall on Information-Week 500, a list of top US technology innovators.

International Board of Lactation Consultant Examiners and International Lactation Consultant Association recognize BIDMC for excellence in lactation care.

Becker's Hospital Review places BIDMC on its list of year's 100 Great Hospitals. US News & World Report ranks BIDMC among top 3% of all hospitals nationally.

US News & World Report ranks BIDMC among top 3% of all hospitals nationally.

BIDMC is designated as a Center of Excellence: Continence Care by the National Association for Continence.

Yvonne Gomez-Carrion, MD, and Sandra Mason, MD, are honored with BIDMC's 2014 LGBT Achievement Award.

Neel Shah, MD, MPP, is named one of the "40 smartest people in health care" by Becker's Hospital Review.

New England Center for Placental Disorders is created at BIDMC.

Neel Shah, MD, MPP, is named one of the "40 Health Care Innovators Under 40" by MedTech Boston.

BIDMC named a "Leader in LGBTQ Healthcare Equality" by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation, the educational arm of the country's largest lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer civil rights organization.